Jawablah pertanyaan di bawah ini dengan benar !

1. The Komodo Dragon

The Komodo dragon is the largest lizard in the world. It is a reptile that lives mainly on several Indonesian islands, such as Komodo, Rinca, and Flores.

A Komodo dragon has a large body, strong legs, sharp claws, and a long tail. It has rough, gray-brown skin. It also has a strong sense of smell that helps it find food.

Komodo dragons are carnivores. They eat meat, such as deer, wild pigs, and smaller animals. They usually use their strong jaws and sharp teeth to catch and eat their prey.

Komodo dragons are protected animals in Indonesia. They are an important part of the ecosystem and need to be protected from threats.

What is a Komodo dragon?

Write the definition based on the text.

2. Imagine that you are describing your classroom to a new student. Read the sentence:

There are twenty small wooden chairs and a large whiteboard in my classroom.

Identify the noun groups in the sentence !

3. Imagine that you are in your classroom. Complete the paragraph using the appropriate possessive adjectives.

I am a student. _____ name is Dika. I study at an MTs. My friends are Ali and Fatimah. Ali brings _____ dictionary, while Fatimah brings _____ English book. We study together in _____ classroom.

4. Read the short text.

Our school has a small garden. The students water the plants every afternoon. They clean the garden every Friday. The plants are protected from weeds. The garden is cleaned by the students every Friday.

Find two active voice sentences and Find one passive voice sentence.

5. Read the two short texts below and answer the questions carefully!

Text 1 (Earthquake): An earthquake is a sudden shaking of the ground caused by movements under the Earth's crust. Scientifically, it helps release underground pressure. Culturally in Indonesia, it reminds local communities to build traditional earthquake-resistant wooden houses.

Text 2 (Tsunami): A tsunami is a series of massive sea waves caused by underwater earthquakes or landslides. Environmentally, it destroys coastal areas, but it also teaches coastal villages the importance of planting mangrove trees as natural barriers.

Look at the verbs used in both texts (e.g., is, helps, destroys, teaches). Why do the authors use the simple present tense? Is it correct?

6. Read the short incomplete text (cloze text) below carefully! Fill in the blanks with the correct possessive adjectives (such as my, your, his, her, its, our, their), and then answer the critical questions that follow.

Today is a bright Sunday morning. Ahmad and (1) _____ friends, Budi and Rizki, are preparing for (2) _____ school science project in the schoolyard. Ahmad brings (3) _____ favorite sketchbook to draw a natural phenomenon. Meanwhile, Fatimah sits under a big tree, opening (4) _____ bag to take out some colored pencils. Suddenly, a playful kitten approaches them. (5) _____ fur is as soft as cotton. They all smile happily because this is (6) _____ favorite spot to study together.

7. Look at these two sentences from the text above:

Sentence A: "Ahmad planted several rare herbal trees in the soil."

Sentence B: "A lot of plastic trash was collected by the 9th-grade students."

Identify which sentence is Active Voice and which one is Passive Voice. Then, explain how the focus of the subject and object differs between the two sentences!

8. Complete the text below.
